If the employee is married at the time of his/her death, his/her spouse/registered domestic partner is automatically his/her beneficiary. If the employee wishes to designate someone other than his/her spouse/registered domestic partner as his/her beneficiary, the employee must do so in writing and his/her spouse/registered domestic partner must sign a spousal consent. If the employee is unmarried at the time of his/her death, the employee's Account balance will be paid to his/her estate unless the employee has designated another beneficiary.

To designate a beneficiary, please contact the District's Human Resources Office for a Beneficiary Designation Form.

DISTRIBUTION OF BENEFITS

Eligibility for Distribution

The employee or his/her beneficiary will receive the employee's Account balance after his/her employment ends for any of the following reasons:

1. Retirement (and satisfying the vesting requirements)
2. Permanent and Total Disability

Receiving your PARS Account Balance

When PARS is notified by the District of an employee's retirement and eligibility for benefits, appropriate distribution forms will be sent to the employee. It is the employee's responsibility to complete these forms and return them to the PARS office. Once PARS receives all correctly completed distribution forms, a distribution of the employee's Account will be made by U.S. Bank or John Hancock as soon as administratively possible.

DISTRIBUTION OPTIONS

The employee has the option of receiving his/her Account balance as follows:

1. Lump-Sum Payment*: a one-time lump sum cash payment.
2. Direct Rollover into a traditional IRA or to an eligible employer plan that accepts the rollover.
3. In lieu of the lump-sum payment, the employee may elect an alternative form of payment to be paid monthly.
Please contact PARS for more information.
